Mr. Frawley's Very Wise Resignation Act-A Forgivable Joke Which Everybody Most Rend-Den Thompson and His Rall-rend Invention-Two Much Disgusted

English Tourists at a Box Office.

T. D. Frawley has done a very wise thing, and he deserves commendation. He has resigned his part, that of Jack Deering, in 'The Quick or the Dead ?" at the Fifth Avenue Theatre. "My performance was very severely and adversely criticised," he said yesterday, "and I should like people to see that I can act. Before the 'Quick or the Dead?' was produced I went to the management and declared that I would give up my part, because I did not see a single line or situation in it that would redeem it. Mr. Durant said that my resignation at such a time would throw a damper on the piece. Well, I appeared. I hoped that I would have a chance to play my part in ' A Sad Coquette,' but Miss Clayton tells me that she intends to run the 'Quick or the Dead?' during her entire engagement at the Fifth Avenue Theatre, So I am getting out. It is the best thing to do."

Charles Frohman went to Rochester yes-terday to see his sister-in-law, "The Wife" of Daniel Frohman, now playing in that city. This is meant to be an extremely side-splitting joke. Ha! Ha!

J. B. Studley, the ex-provincial star, has been engaged as Miss Margaret Mather's leading man. Here are the names of the rest of the company: Charles Hager, H. A. Weaver, Dan Macinnis, N. C. In Alexander Comstock's office at the Anademy of Music stands a curious little model of a steam car upon iron rails. This is a model showing the working of a patent secured some fifteen years ago by Denman Thompson. Uncle Joshua has never done anything with it, but those who think he has forgotten make a very vast mistake. Mr. forgotten make a very vast mistake. Mr. Thompson's idea embodied in this patent is that a double wheel and double track will avert all danger in case of what is known as a spreading rail. He settled the matter. "Jake," he called out, "send them to the Union Square Theatre. There's not much of a crowd there."

Miss Dwyer's work was intelligent and sympathetic, and she won a great deal of well-deserved applause. Miss Maige Carr appeared as Tom Chickweed. The scenic effects were extensity good. THEATRE COMICCE.

"One of the Old Stock" was produced at the Theatre Comique, Harlem, last night by Charles L. Davis. The play is fairly entertaining. A number of specialities in the shape of songs, dances and musical performances were introduced. "One of the Old Stock" does not differ very essentially from other plays in which Mr. Davis has been seen.

THALIA TREATRE, "Caspar, the Yodior," drew a large audience to H. H. Jacoba's Thalia Theatre last night, and Charles T. Ellis delighted it with his clever and versatile performance. Mr. Ellis sings charmingly, and the interest in the piece is heightened by a thoroughly competent supporting company. Miss Clara Moore was especially commendable.

KOSTER & BIAL'S. Mile. Ancion, fondly called "the Queen of the Air," was the novelty at Koster & Bial's last night. She did some asparently hazardeus feats in palancing, though she seemed quite at home on the trapeze. Mile Ancion is a shapely young woman, and she beaused upon the assembled dudes with a smile that evimently rejoiced them.

The new play by Denman Thompson and George Ryer, entitled "The Two Sisters," was presented at the Amphion Academy last night with all the salvantages of new secuery, careful stage setting, electric lighting and excellent orchestration and before a fair-sixed audience. GRAND OFFRA-HOUSE.

If appliance may be a certain symbol of success, "The Stowaway," the latest English melodrama, which was produced at the Grand Opera-House in Brookin last evening, is a great go. The play abounds in conventional situations, which offities merge on the improbable; but the wealth of stage effects will alone make the piece successful, and, with its enlarged stage, the Grand proved an excellent place to show them to advantage. Of the company, everything favorable can be said.

A new musical farce comedy was produced at the Criterion Theatre last night, called "Three Blind Mice." Three was no clue offered as to the plot, and the audience scon gave up looking for it, and gave thenselves up to the rollicking fun, with which the piece abounds. The amount of laughter contained in three sets can be imavined, when such names as Blily Rice, Burt Sneparl, Frank Howard and Saily Cohen appear in the company. Excellent work was also done by Richard O'Gorman and Ed Heffernas. In the last act is introduced an old-time minstrel scene, in which Billy Rice appears with all the vim and humor of former years. His topical soug. "Free Trade and Protection," was a great finise for the evening. PROCTOR'S CRITERION THEATRE. ZIPP'S CASINO.

The Manhattan Quariet have re-turned with new songs, and were warmly wel-comed. Minnie Scholt sang "The Hed Han-danna" and "With All Her Faults I Love Her-Still" with the usual flattering results. Among the new people are Phillis Allen, Hector Morris, Charles M. Earnest and Marie Hart.

HYDE & BEHMAN'S. Reilley & Wood's new show proved a great drawing eard at Hyde & Behman's last evening. The Vaidis Sisters, who created a genuine sensation with "Mazulm" last season, form a very important feature of the entertainment, and their thrilling performance on the revolving trapeze was enjoyed by an audience large in numbers and generous in applause. The company, headed by Pat Heilley, is a good one.

Holley, is a good one.

HOLMES'S STANDARD MUSRUM.

Arizona Joe and Miss Clara Grear, in the sensational metodraina entitled "Black Hawk," proved attraction enough last evening to pack Holmes's Museum. The play is one calculated to plrass all classes and abounds in turilling situations and exciting climaxes. Miss Clara Grear's musical selections were vigcrously applanded. Arizona Joe did really clever work with the rifle. There are a number of clever trained dogs and horses which form not an unitaportant part of the show.

JACOSE'S BROCKLYN THEATKE.

One of Mr. Jacobe's best companies presented

One of Mr. Jacobs's best companies presented Frank Harvey's powerful melodrams, "The Waters of Sin," at Jacobs's Brooklyn Theatre last evening. Mr. King Healey, as Stephen Marnt, sid some clever work, and the balance of the company were good in their respective parts. In the cast were Thomas McCabe, F. W. Strong, J. K. Mortimer, Atelka Wardell, Carrie Rose Strong, Genevive Howard, Neily Donald Leffingwell and Mary Mills.

JACOBS'S LYCKUM THEATRE. T. S. Arthur's temperance drama ''Ten Nights in a Barroom' was sufficient attraction to draw a good sized audience to Jacob's new Lyceum Thearier last evening. The part of generous, goodhearied Sample Switchul was well taken by E. W. Marston. The rather thankless role of Joe Morgan, the drunkard, was in the hands of Gustavas Clarke. Little Mamie Gilroy was the Mary Morgan. She and the rest of the company acquitted themselves creditably.

Ingalls a letter asking for information concerning the Union Labor vote of the State. Invalis gives it as his impression that the Republican vote will be much smaller in the State than is being figured on, and that he has his doubt as to whether Kansas is resuly not a doubtful State, particularly on the State ticket. He gives as reasons for his belief that Kansas people have not been given an argument clearly defending the tariff ideas of the Republicans, and continues: Neatly printed announcements for an opening of the Columbia billiard parlors, at Broadway and Twenty-second street, show that the efforts to have George Slosson remain in this city have been successful. Slosson & Co. are the new proprietors, William Reiley being the partner. The opening occurs this evening. The Republican orators, for this seeming weakness, in my opinion, are not to biame, for, indeed, I cannot see that my one not inspired, or more highly gifted than ment of the Kansan, can furnish an argument for lie-publican tariff that will be convincing to the kansas tarmer. speaking of Senator Plumb's Oklahoma amend-ment, Ingalis is said to declare that Plumb has long opposed the Oklahoma oill and to hint of an attempted land grab and speculation in Oklahoma curs this evening.

At the Ninth International Medical Congress Dr. A. L. A. Whenever the quantity of water cannot be taken the Powder Carlstad Spradel Salt (gen-uine imported) will answer equally as well. He states that the effect of the Water and Powder Spradel Salt is to be relied upon, independently of any adjuncts of treatment, such as diet and exercise, &c. "My experi-ence with the genuine imported Carisbad Salt in powder form has been such that I may truly say that no remedy which I have employed has given me as smuch pleasure and profit as this particular one." The dose of Salt is a teaspoonful three times a day dissolved in water. The UFNUINE article is bottled under the supervision of the city of Carlabad, and has the seal of the city, and the signature of Elener & Mendelson Co. on the neck of every bettle. All others are worthless imitations. The comming is never sold in bulk.
